Aboriginal Education in Your School K-12 Conference:

Relationships, Partnerships and Growth

Register for this event at: www.cpl.asn.au

Monday, 30 October 2017

Aboriginal Education in Your School K-12 Conference is designed to support the implementation of Aboriginal education in public schools. Participants will engage with research, DoE and NSWTF policies and planning frameworks to underpin and embed practices in the classroom.

Educational leaders and experienced teachers will explore practical examples of ways to build cultural knowledge and high expectations. Participants will reflect on the importance of improving outcomes for Aboriginal students, developing knowledge and understandings of Aboriginal Australia for all students and building relationships and partnerships with Aboriginal communities.

Participants will be equipped to make practical and manageable changes in their classrooms, inspire colleagues and further develop Aboriginal education for all.

Registrations for this conference are open and all financial members of the NSW Teachers Federation are eligible to apply to attend CPL courses and conferences. Please visit our website to register at www.cpl.asn.au. The fee for the conference is $200. Relief costs need to be met by your school.

This conference is registered and accredited with the NSW Education Standards Authority (NESA) for 5 hours for maintenance of accreditation at Proficient Teacher level.

The Conference will be held in the Auditorium of the NSW Teachers Federation, 37 Reservoir Street, Surry Hills
