

Aboriginal Education K-12 Conference

Friday, 1 November 2019 – Surry Hills

Members are advised to register as soon as possible at:
www.cpl.asn.au

Presenters: Educational leaders, experienced teachers and leading academics

The Aboriginal Education K-12 Conference is designed to support the implementation of Aboriginal Education in public schools. Participants will engage with research, DoE and NSWTF policies to underpin and embed practices in the classroom.

There will be a primary and secondary workshop where educational leaders and experienced teachers will explore practical examples of ways to improve outcomes for Aboriginal students, develop knowledge and understandings of Aboriginal Australia for all students and build relationships and partnerships with Aboriginal communities. The presenters will be referring to the DoE Aboriginal Education Policy, NSWTF 25 Year Approach: The Way Forward and the NESAs Standards.

Participants will be equipped to make practical and manageable changes in their classrooms, inspire colleagues and further develop Aboriginal Education for all.

Please alert all Teachers who may be interested in this important Conference

Completing a Aboriginal Education K-12 Conference will contribute 5 hours of NESAs Registered PD addressing: 1.4.2, 6.2.2 from the Australian Professional Standards for Teachers towards maintaining Proficient Teacher Accreditation in NSW

Registrations for this conference are open and all financial members of the NSW Teachers Federation are eligible to apply to attend CPL courses and conferences. Please visit our website to register at www.cpl.asn.au. The fee for the conference is $250. Relief costs need to be met by your school.

The Conference will be held in the Auditorium of the NSW Teachers Federation, 37 Reservoir Street, Surry Hills

For full details and registration please visit our website: www.cpl.asn.au