"Stories and truths" and English teachers

The English team is back... ready to share the wonders of English...its place in our lives ... why it matters so much.

What is it that we do as English teachers that is unique, life-enriching ... indispensable?

Close your eyes and imagine a world without art, stories or... English teachers.

Come to the 2021 English Conference to re-connect with and re-affirm your own narrative as an English teacher in the company of other passionate, public educators.

This conference will promote and celebrate the central place and powerful nature of our subject, and the important role English teachers play in the twenty first century.

Professor Jackie Manuel leads the experienced team of Deb McPherson, Jane Sherlock, Steve Henry, Jowen Hillyer, Rosemary Henzell, Zenna Diab, Vesna Veljkovic and Sam Schroder.

Sessions will include:

- Why our stories and truths define our lives as English teachers
- The latest research and its application to the English classroom
- A focus on building student engagement, capacity and capital- starting at year 7 to ensure that by Year 12 students are well equipped with the skills, knowledge and understanding, for the HSC and beyond.
- Inspiring texts and strengthening reading, writing and creativity in years 7-12
- Separate sessions on classroom voices: Reading to Write, Craft of Writing, EAL/D, English Studies
- Panel of experts sharing insights about the HSC English examinations of 2019 and 2020

All financial members of the NSW Teachers Federation are eligible to apply to attend CPL conferences.

The fee for the conference is: $250

The Conference will be held in the Auditorium of the NSW Teachers Federation, 37 Reservoir Street, Surry Hills

Please alert all English Teachers at your school about this important event.
