K-12 Multicultural Education Conference

Wednesday, 6 November 2019

Surry Hills

Members are advised to register as soon as possible at:

www.cpl.asn.au

The K-12 Multicultural Education Conference is a major conference for teachers and educational leaders in school communities implementing the DoE Multicultural Education Policy, including Anti - Racism and English as an Additional Language/Dialect (EAL/D).

Teachers and educational leaders in schools will partner with academics to explore theory, current research and the practical implications for pedagogy and whole school organisation as related to Multicultural Education. They will explore the themes of refugee education, cultural diversity in schools, anti – racism, social and cultural insights for teachers, EAL/D pedagogy and curriculum.

The conference will feature keynote addresses and presentations from Dr Christina Ho (UTS), Professor Megan Watkins (WSU), Professor Greg Noble (WSU) and Amber Flohm (Multicultural Officer NSWTF).

Registrations for this conference are now open and all financial members of the NSW Teachers Federation are eligible to apply to attend CPL courses and conferences. The fee for the conference is $250. Relief costs need to be met by your school.

Completing a K-12 Multicultural Conference will contribute 5 hours of NESA Registered PD addressing: 6.2.2 and 6.4.2 from the Australian Professional Standards for Teachers towards maintaining Proficient Teacher Accreditation in NSW.

The Conference will be held in the Auditorium of the NSW Teachers Federation, 37 Reservoir Street, Surry Hills
Please alert all teachers at your school to this important event.
