

Teacher Librarian K-6 Conference

Friday, 13 September 2019 - Surry Hills

This whole day conference will focus on the school library. Teacher librarians play a vital role in schools through their work with students encouraging them to read and explore texts. In addition teacher librarians support classroom teachers through their knowledge of available resources for classroom teaching. The focus of this conference is connection through stories.

There will be six sessions throughout the day and a variety of speakers. Mary-Ellen Betts, Jenny Williams and Sandra Rowan work as educational consultants in a number of NSW schools. Dr Stephanie Owen Reeder is an Australian author and Kate Colley from Bloomin' Books will also present sessions. There will be an opportunity for a panel of teacher librarians to share what is happening in their schools.

- Session 1: Unpacking the layers in a book
- Session 2: Connecting to our history
- Session 3: Interview: Introducing the National Centre for Australian Children's
- Session 4: Cross Curriculum and connection to stories
- Session 5: What's brand new?
- Session 6: What's happening in the library with 3 current teacher Librarians
