The new English Stage 6 Syllabus is now part of our classroom teaching and learning. This conference will focus on key areas of the new syllabus with close attention to Year 12. It builds on previous English conferences and provides a deeper exploration of specific areas identified from teacher feedback. This is a major English conference for all involved in teaching English in the senior secondary years.

Conference program

Tracking from Reading to Write to The Craft of Writing

- How the Module C: The Craft of Writing links to and builds on the vital skills, dispositions and approaches developed in Reading to Write
- Expert voices from the classroom on successful programming and practice for The Craft of Writing and Reading to Write
- A framework for exploring Module C texts

Module B for Advanced and Standard in parallel sessions (Conference participants can select to attend Standard or Advanced)

- The distinctive requirements of Module B
- An exploration of Module B texts including practical approaches to teaching and learning, assessment and examination preparation

Assessment - with a focus on multimodal texts and tasks

- How to incorporate and extend skills from Years 7-12
- Exploration of multimodal texts and tasks from classroom teachers and ideas for multimodal assessment tasks linked to specific Modules

This conference will provide practical, transferable and adaptable ideas and resources to inspire confidence, engagement and agency in teaching and students' learning. Fresh ideas will be presented to support teachers to continue to implement the English Stage 6 Syllabus in 2019.

All financial members of the NSW Teachers Federation are eligible to apply to attend CPL conferences.

The Conference will be held in the Auditorium of the NSW Teachers Federation, 37 Reservoir Street, Surry Hills
