Graham Sattler is Executive Director of Mitchell Conservatorium and Vice President of the Association of NSW Regional Conservatoriums. He has extensive music teaching experience in primary, secondary and adult education settings, and has been involved in course design and delivery around concepts and strategies for both pre-service and existing teachers. Committed to the principles of access and equity in student-focused learning, Graham presents regularly at international music education conferences, drawing on his research into socio-cultural development through group music activity. He has a professional performance background in singing, as an orchestral trombonist, and in choral and orchestral conducting.
