

Pre-writing	Practical Strategies	Writing	Practical strategies	Post writing/ Response	Practical strategies
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Experience or problem</li> <li>• Motivation</li> <li>• Decision to write</li> <li>• Growth of intention</li> <li>• Stimulus</li> <li>• Incubating, rehearsing, discussing, researching, gathering, collecting</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Word cache</li> <li>• Writing Derby</li> <li>• Interest inventories</li> <li>• Activity cards</li> <li>• Memory</li> <li>• Observation</li> <li>• Pictures</li> <li>• Questions</li> <li>• Problems</li> <li>• Issues</li> <li>• Interviews</li> <li>• Role-plays</li> <li>• Media</li> <li>• Film</li> <li>• Literature</li> <li>• Objects as stimulus</li> <li>• Photos</li> <li>• "Starters"</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Draft writing, including revising</li> <li>• Revising and editing</li> <li>• Select, reject, change</li> <li>• Discuss</li> <li>• Meditate</li> <li>• Doodle</li> <li>• Read</li> <li>• Reshaping, polishing, rewriting, proofreading</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Work individually, in pairs, with teacher, sharing drafts, receiving feedback</li> <li>• Use computers to draft and edit and revise</li> <li>• Use a contract method to individualise writing</li> <li>• Establish a works in progress file, and a portfolio of polished pieces</li> <li>• Allow time for talk – room to reflect is crucial</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Product and publication</li> <li>• Appropriate format</li> <li>• Distributed to readers</li> <li>• Reader's response conveyed to the writer</li> <li>• Writer's attitude and feelings about the writing experience</li> <li>• Reflection on growth</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Oral presentation – reading to class, assembly, staff, library, the elderly, primary students, festivals</li> <li>• Podcasts</li> <li>• Short film</li> <li>• Displays in class, school foyer, library, public centres, window displays, mobiles</li> <li>• Publish - school newsletters, online, class anthologies</li> </ul>